

OCT
20
2009

Keep Highway Depots Open All Year: Liberals

The Liberals are reiterating they want government to leave all the highway depots open year-round. Transportation critic Roland Butler was on the Northern Peninsula yesterday which was hit with an early snowfall, making driving difficult. He told VOCM BackTalk with Bill Rowe he believes government should abandon its appeal of a court case regarding the closure of the depots. NAPE brought government to court on the matter.