

DEC
18
2009

Opposition Calls For Fiscal Agreement

The official opposition is calling on government to make room in the next budget for a fiscal agreement with municipalities. Municipal Affairs critic Marshall Dean says municipalities are challenged to deliver services on a small budget and while government has given project based support, he says there is no comprehensive agreement.