Opposition Gives Budget Mixed Reviews April 30, 2008

The official Opposition is giving the budget mixed reviews. Liberal Leader Yvonne Jones says while some good investments surrounding health care were announced, there is no plan to deal with issues in the long term. Jones says the monies slated for infrastructure are just a fraction of what recent studies suggest should be invested. Jones says she is disappointed there was nothing for public service pensioners.

NDP Leader Lorraine Michael says the budget offers no overall vision for the province. She says overall, a large surplus doesn't impress her when she looks at the needs that still exist.
