Liberal Motion To Be Debated Today May 7, 2008

MHA's will debate a Liberal motion today calling for emergency measures to address the provinces home care issues. Leader Yvonne Jones says government has the means to lessen the burden faced by many requiring home care services in the short term, while it works to secure a new model for financial assessment. Jones says with government already acknowledging the current system is flawed, it is shameful to allow people to suffer any longer.
