Jones Looking For Update on Fire Safety May 8, 2008

Opposition Leader Yvonne Jones wants an update on fire safety issues in the province's schools. Jones says its been almost 2 months since the issue of fire safety was raised in the House of Assembly and there has been no update from Education Minister Joan Burke. Jones says a recent directive was sent from school boards to all schools asking them to submit their routine fire safety checklists. Burke says the department is still working on getting all the information.
