More Concerns About Amendments to Energy Corporation Act May 29, 2008

The provincial government says amendments to Energy Corporation Act ensure transparency and accountability. Opposition Leader Yvonne Jones continues to raise concerns about the changes. Natural Resources Minister Kathy Dunderdale says the protection of commercially sensitive information is vital to the future of the province's energy corporation. Newfoundland and Labrador Hydro CEO Ed Martin says a large amount of research went into the legislation, examining the practises of successful energy companies around the world.
